Dear Appa,

There are no words powerful enough to truly describe the man you are and everything you mean to us. As we celebrate your 48th birthday, this magazine is our small way of saying thank you. Thank you for every sacrifice, every lesson, every moment of love, and every dream you worked so hard to build for us.

From the day we were born, you have been our hero, our guide, and our greatest supporter. You have shown us what it means to be kind, to be strong, to be honest, and to never give up — no matter what life brings.

This magazine is not just about your achievements; it's about the countless little things that make you who you are — the late nights, the early mornings, the quiet worries, and the loud laughter.

Today, we celebrate you. Your journey inspires us every single day. Here's to more love, more adventures, more happiness, and more beautiful memories ahead.

A truly amazing man
is hard to find,
difficult to part with,
and impossible to forget.

Thank you for being you, Appa.

YOU ARE OUR FOREVER HERO.

With all our love,

— Family
